TeamTrek

THE CHALLENGE

How can you best get your organization and cross-functional teams moving in the same direction with the same mission?

THE SOLUTION

TeamTrek™ is an innovative portable version of the outdoor activity 'trolleys'. TeamTrek challenges teams to find the most effective means of transporting themselves towards their goal. Planning, communication, teamwork, coordination and many more outcomes are possible with this high energy activity.

TeamTrek, designed for single or multiple groups or teams, captures the excitement and competition of outdoor challenges while safely providing the business related experience of indoor simulations. This popular 'group transport device' provides high impact learning exercises which create dynamic opportunities for dramatizing real-life issues facing leaders and organizations.

Action Learning Devices provide an environment for accelerated learning, a stage for viewing individual, group and organizational behaviors, and a versatile tool for enhancing employee and organizational development programs. Each device can produce a variety of learning environments reflecting group dynamics ranging from simple to complex. Each tool also provides an arena for action-based assessment of participants styles and capabilities and a practice field for developing new competencies. Clients use Action Learning Devices for developing leadership, coaching and systems thinking skills, for creating high performance teams and learning organizations, and many other applications.

Interel was formed in 1973 to research solutions to problems affecting corporate productivity. This work led to the creation of Action Learning Devices, which have evolved to meet the changing needs of corporate clients. In today's fiercely competitive business environment it is essential that organizations respond immediately to market changes, new technology and customer service requirements. Interel's Action Learning Devices provide an accelerated learning environment for employees that allows them to discover how to meet those competitive challenges in timely, effective and creative ways. Today, Interel is the leading producer of Action Learning Devices used by Fortune 500 companies for human resource and organizational development, and institutions engaged in action learning.
